Take part in the first three Story Quests from Saturday 13 July, and watch out for a second set being released in August!

Visit storyquest.org.uk or call 07849353729 to find out more, and be sure to share photos of you on your Story Quest using #StoryQuest - there are more prizes to be won!

Enjoy a summer of Story Quests!

You can do a Story Quest completely independently by signing up online or by visiting one of our local sign up points, or you can join the fun at a series of celebration events throughout the school holidays!

Our partner StreetGames, provider of fabulously fun sports events, will be hosting a festival of sport and literacy at a different location each week.

Come along for group trails, storytelling, local sports demonstrations and even more Story Quest fun!

About Stoke Reads

The National Literacy Hub in Stoke-on-Trent is known as Stoke Reads. It brings together partners across the city to promote reading and boost literacy levels.

Stoke Reads inspires the city to enjoy reading and helps parents to support their children's literacy skills. Schools are delivering innovative literacy projects and businesses have the opportunity to play an important role in raising literacy levels.
